

Professor, Data Analytics

Part-Time: General Call, DAP-2020

St. Clair College is seeking an experienced and motivated professional who shares our commitment to quality and student success. The Zekelman School of Business & Information Technology requires a part-time professor to teach in the Data Analytics program:

Candidates must be available to teach Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. and potentially Saturdays.

The responsibilities of St. Clair College Professors include, but are not limited to:

- Creating a positive learning environment that accommodate students' diverse cultural and educational backgrounds, experiences and individual learning styles;
- Proficient in advanced Excel, SQL, R, Python and is able to create complex queries;
- Ability to understand the nuances of web data sources and internal data sources and how they can impact insights;
- Utilizing principles of adult education to actively engage students in the learning process;
- Effectively using educational technologies to support learning, manage and post grades;
- Developing curriculum that uses appropriate strategies and tools to assess student learning;
- Ensuring that course and program curriculum is current and relevant;
- Working independently and demonstrating initiative; and
- Working effectively with students, the program team and a variety of internal and external stakeholders.

The ideal candidate will meet or exceed the following qualifications:

- A Diploma and/or undergraduate degree in Management Information Systems, Computer Science or in a related field, a Bachelor of Education or Master of Education is an asset;
- Minimum of five years of recent and relevant work experience;
- Previous experience working with a large volume data sets;
- Data Management and business analytical skills;
- Teaching experience at the post-secondary level with a demonstrated application of adult educational principles and teaching/assessment methodologies;
- Use of technology to support student learning and managing grades;
- Superior verbal and written communication and interpersonal skills, critical thinking and problem solving skills;
- Demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching and learning and proven approach to life-long learning;
- Excellent organizational and time management skills;
- Self-motivated and independent worker who also functions well in a team environment;
- Commitment to diversity and equity are essential to interact effectively with the College's diverse student and staff population;
- Understanding of the Ontario community college system;
- Flexibility in adapting to change and in participating in consultative decision-making processes.

Please forward your resume quoting the competition # either by fax at (519) 972-2754, by online application at http://www.stclaircollege.ca/jobpostings/hr\_resumes.html or by mail to Human Resources, St. Clair College of Applied Arts & Technology, 2000 Talbot Road West, Windsor, Ontario N9A 6S4. Please use one method only. Resumes must be received prior to the closing date and time.

COMMITTED TO EQUITY IN EMPLOYMENT AND EDUCATION

Visit our Employment Opportunities Web Page at: <http://www.stclaircollege.ca/jobpostings>

START HERE GO ANYWHERE